NORTHERN NURSING

...it's also a great place to work!

ARE YOU IN?

Are you interested in serving a diverse population through practicing your full-scope of nursing while working alongside, and learning from, experienced nurses and colleagues?

Are you ready for adventure and experiences like no other?

Are you looking for beauty and culture right at your front door?

If you answer yes to any of these, come see what Labrador-Grenfell Health has to offer!

WHAT WE OFFER...

- A wide array of employment opportunities;
- Labrador-Grenfell Health Regional Nurse Retention Program (recognized in 2019 by The Northern Development Minister's Forum as an innovative best practice);
- Bursary program;
- Federal Loan Forgiveness;
- Subsidized housing costs (Rural and Remote);
- Relocation assistance;
- Flexible schedules;
- Educational opportunities;
- Innovations in virtual care.

A "GENERALIST MODEL"

Labrador-Grenfell Health requires Registered Nurses who practice to their full-scope in a wide variety of areas. This generalist model is as challenging as it is rewarding for nurses who care for clients of all ages and all walks of life!

ABOUT US

Labrador-Grenfell Health is committed to providing quality health care and community services to a small population of approximately 36,000 spread across a uniquely large and complex geography (294,300 km). The needs of small, multigenerational, and tight-knit communities are provided by our 22 facilities, including hospitals, community health centers, community clinics and long-term care facilities. In the Indigenous communities, Labrador-Grenfell Health partners with the Nunatsiavut Department of Health and Social Development, Innu Band Council, NunatuKavut Community Council, Health Canada and private practitioners in delivering community health programs. You will find beautiful places to visit (or live) in any community with lots of activities and opportunities to maintain your own health and well-being...cross-country/downhill skiing, hiking, biking, snowmobiling, trail riding, snowshoeing, hunting, and fishing to name a few!

Fill your bucket with Labrador-Grenfell Health. What better time to try something new? Join us for opportunity, adventure, professional growth, and fulfillment.
